

Kingdom Come, Let Me See You

The stars are so close I can touch them
I don't know how I feel
See me someone hear me someone to
It gives another world
Where no shadows fall
Where I can feel no fear
The search for you
Leads me to myself
Let me see you
To understand
Is this all a dream

I am floating in an empty room
Sometimes I can understand
No one knows where we go
Will we see each other again
Love, fear and hope are so close
The search for you
Leads me to myself
Let me see you
To understand
