

Kingdom Come, Loving You

Another day has come
It's such a heavy load
Another day has come

Another wave of sadness
Another touch of madness
Another wave has come
A lot words of comfort
But they're just words not answers
Don't wanna sleep alone

Another day, another war
Another night, another star
And through it all
I'm lovin' you, lovin' you, lovin' you
Another town, another face
Another wine, another taste
And through it all
I'm lovin' you, lovin' you, lovin' you

It seems my life I'm spending
Along this road unending
Another day has gone
I guess there's still tomorrow
To kill the seeds of sorrow
And then the war is won
