

Kingdom Come, Mean Dirty Joe

Mean dirty Joe
Where did you go
Stole your best friends love away
Left without a sound
Look at your face
Cold hard disgrace
Guilty of a broken trust
Oh, took his heart and threw it down

Mean dirty Joe
Carry that load
Maybe you regret it now
Maybe you just don't
Now you're alone
Run down that road
Shouldn't have done that dirty deed
Oh, now you best keep movin' on

Where did you go
Where did you go
Go
And now you are all alone
So alone
And now you can't go home
