

Kingdom Come, Mouth Full

(They) Govern the world
Want to be high
When someone sees (them)
(they) Give only applause
All yell Look at them
But only the legs are really real
The legs promise heaven on earth
But they alone know it is not going to happen
When for you comes only more trash
Only your legs are real, you are only the zero
I believe you will never learn
With you style you are the looser
I have tried already many times

Mouth full of this torture
You make yourself important
Stop now
I Find it's not correct
Also you will find it out
Your best friends are your legs
Be careful with your legs or you will be alone
I am not angry with you
I know you want to achieve
But out of my script I must cross you
The legs alone are good (and) OK
Be polite one time it doesn't hurt
