

Kingdom Come, Now Forever After

It's perfect when we touch
The signs are shining bright
We just can't get enough
This much we know

[Chorus:]

Oh, it's so right
Time has come, it's
Now, forever after
Now, sharing our laughter
For better or worse
Until we die
Now, forever after
Now, sharing our laughter
Until the end of time

There's magic in our eyes
Which no one else can see
A flame that will not die
Shedding it's glow

We're wiser now by far
Our hearts are bound so tight
We know what we must do
Where we must go
