Kingdom Come, Religion Needs No Winner

Being burned by the flame I believe it's not the same A sign of the time It's a very dangerous game I simply can't ignore What's causing so much war Religion's no excuse For all the damned abuse

We're shedding blood in vein So intense, so much pain The truth we cannot see An illusion of being free

Believe in something good You definitely should Wanna change it, make a deal Get back to what is real

Cry out - start to conquer your doubts (Reach out - love is showing you how)

[Chorus:] Religion - needs no winner White pigeon - can't be the sinner
