

Kingdom Come, The Shuffle

You know you're looking mighty fine
You make me wanna lose my mind
We're wasting all our precious time
Why don't you gimme what you got

I'll tell you what we're gonna do
We're gonna have a rendezvous
I need a little piece of you
Why don't you gimme what you got

You know I'm gonna treat you right
I'll rock you till you drop tonight
You know you're gonna feel allright
Why don't you gimme what you go
