

Kingdom Come, You're Not The Only... I Know

I should go
Even though
I've forgiven all the lies
That you told
Scared to have you back again
People just don't change
After all I know if I pretend
I'd be lying just the same

[Chorus:]
Now you're wondering why
Things did not turn out right
Got to change your style
You're not the only I know

Long ago
Should have known
You were young and scared to be
On your own
Tried your luck on me again
Fooled me for a while
I can see the games you played before
And it only makes me smile
