Kingdom Waves, Mirage World

Like a chameleon always have to lie Changing my light into shadows Within walking distance, I see what's bright

Deliverance forever

Another day to entertain I create my mirage world

Demons are calling me constantly Going insane in silence Couldn't care less about my destiny Am I getting stranded?

Coloured with madness.
