

Kingmaker, Sleepwalking In The Five O'Clock Sh

When you wake
Do you really wake
Or do you walk in your sleep

When you taste
Do you really taste
Or does the work kill the pleasure

When you die
Will you really die
Or will you have been dead for years

When you cry
Do you really cry
Here all hope ends in my life

Sleepwalk into your grave
Sleepwalk into your grave

When you think
Do you really think
That we're all living downwind

What do you fear
Do you REALLY fear
To forget your sunblock at Armageddon

When you steal
Would you really steal
Because you hate and loathe your innocence

When you kill
Would you really kill
Because the news never changes

Sleepwalk into your grave
Sleepwalk into your grave

When you cry
Do you really cry
Here all hope ends in my life

When you cry
Did you hear me cry
Here all hope ends in my life

My life!
My life!
My life!
My life!
