

Kingmaker, Stay Free

She'd like to live her life in a day-dream
'Cause there is no love on the dole
Others feel the weight of history
Bought before they're sold

Why have all her friends become housewives
Acting on remote control

She'd love to stay free
She'd love to stay free

Absolutely!
She'll stay free

The things she does just for money...
What a drag it is being broke
She'd like to stay in bed forever
But it wouldn't even pay for the rope

You can't but stare at her baby
With her eyes of Sellafield green

She'd love to stay free
She'd love to stay free

I walk with a guilty conscience
Work seems alien
And they're a fickle bunch, the government... at best

Always attacking imagination
Like it's some kind of joke
So for the time being she'll stay free... on a tightrope

Love, love, love, love, love
To stay free
She'd love, love, love, love, love
To stay free

She'd love to stay free
She'd love to stay free
She'd love to stay free
She'd love to stay free

Absolutely!
(She'll stay free)
Economically
(She'll stay free)
...maybe...
(She'll stay free)

If nothing else she'll stay free
