

Kingmaker, Tomorrow's World

Did you see his eyes
Did you see his eyes
In the light
Television eyes
Television eyes
Square and blind

Take your money and run
Take your money and hide
Take your money and run
Take your money inside

There is no time
You must take sides

This is the last stand against tomorrow's world
This is the last stand against tomorrow's world

Habitual lies
Habitual lies
All the time
Sensible life
Sensible life
Live long and die

I won't just forget
You can't watch your mind
I know the kindest cut
If you give me the knife

There is no time
You must take sides

This is the last stand against tomorrow's world
This is the last stand against tomorrow's world

He said it wouldn't last...
