Kings Of Convenience, Winning A Battle, Losing

Even though I'll never need her Even though she's only giving me pain I'll be on my knees to feed her Spend a day to make her smile again

Even though I'll never need her Even though she's only giving me pain As the world is soft around her Leaving me with nothing to disdain

Even though I'm not her minder Even though she doesn't want me around I am on my feet to find her To make sure that she is safe and sound

Even though I'm not her minder Even though she doesn't want me around I am on my feet to find her To make sure that she is safe from harm

The sun sets on the war The day breaks and everything is new

Everything is new Everything is new Everything is new
