

Kinky Machine, Candy Deceit

Candy deceit, the sweetest taste like forbidden fruit that I could not resist She stole control out of my soul right out of my hands, I've already been sold

I've got no faith I've got no shame
I lied when I said I won't be back again Candy deceit I can't forget you tasted so sweet

Voices inside, nowhere to hide from her tiny eyes they whisper love suicide What I don't know I always miss so you can lead me anywhere out of this

And in her eyes we saw the stars
And with her machine gun she's touching everyone

Candy deceit I can't forget you...
