

Kinky Machine, Glitter Bullets

Too young to feel so tired and so numb they spat you out like old chewing gum Dum Dum A joke to everyone to this world you were born redundant
But there's always one - (we never believed you)

GLITTER BULLETS you said you'd do it
But we never believed you

Last night you went looking for a fight fell asleep with the TV shining bright Pumped up on Blackcurrant and Rum you talked so much you bit off your tongue
Now look what you've done - (we never believed you)

GLITTER BULLETS you said you'd do it
But we never believed you

So proud of your transparent skin
Cracked porcelain you broke everything Kissed them all and toyed with your gun
Shaved off your hair now you're hung naked there under the stairs

GLITTER BULLETS you said you'd do it
But we never believed you
