

Kinky Machine, Pissing in the Snow

When the world looks like a Christmas cake
I had to put my foot in it
Shadow boxing with the snowflakes
And shouting from the summit

I was only born a bastard once
It didn't stop me getting plastered once
And now that I'm the King
Of wrecking everything
I don't wanna go home
I wanna be alone
Pissing in the snow

I never meant to show my fists
Fighting talk's only pitbull shit
Now she can hang her stockings up
It doesn't take much to trip me up

I was only born a bastard once
It never stopped me getting plastered once
And now that I'm the King
Of wrecking everything
I know you wanna go
And I wanna be alone
Pissing in the snow

I was born a bastard once
That never stopped me getting plastered once
And now that I'm the King
Of wrecking everything
I don't wanna go home
I wanna be alone
Pissing in the snow
Pissing in the snow

Pissing in the snow
Pissing in the snow
Pissing in the snow
Pissing, pissing in the snow
