

Kino, In Our Eyes

Wait! Don't got away!

We've been waiting for summer but the winter came

We entered people's homes but it was snowing in there

Everyday we were waiting for tomorrow

We hide our eyes behind the blinds of our eyelids

CHORUS

In our eyes-hey, go ahead!

In our eyes-halt!

In our eyes-the birth of the day and the death of the fire

In our eyes-starry night

In our eyes-paradise lost

In our eyes-a closed door

Choosee what you want

We were thirsty-there was no water

We wanted some light-there was no star

We walked out into the rain and drank water from puddles

We wanted songs-there were no words

We wanted sleep-there were no dreams

We were mournful-the orchestra was celebrating victory
