

Kip Winger, Crash The Wall

Still holding out
Can't say for how long
Took the long way home
Does it mean that I'm gone?

Take your pride
Be the last to fall
Close your eyes boy
Gonna crash the wall

Fist full on bones
Told the stories end, shhh
Cause the devil's still listening
Been to heaven once
Can't get back again

Take your pride
Be the last to fall
Close your eyes boy
Gonna crash the wall

You're right on time
Owner, it's over
You and I ain't the same
Don't want your brain
You and I ain't the same

Still holding on
Has it set you free?

Is this life you own
What you want it to be?

And will your pride
Be the last to fall
Close your eyes boy
Gonna crash the wall

Take your pride
Be the last to fall
Close your eyes boy
Gonna crash the wall
