

Kip Winger, Cross

Crossed a sea of crippling pain
Seen a world go up in flame
Found another chance to change

Hard to find enough forgiveness
Strength to overcome my weakness
Find another chance to change

Stripped of everything I've loved
Fell so deep to rise above this
The only truth I've left to feel
(Is here in my hand)

Here on my knees
A cross is born
The one you own

Now I know it's no illusion
Every form has followed feeling
With every cause there is effect

But I haven't known these things are me
I've looked away and not believed it
The only truth I've left to see
(Is here in my hand)

Here on my knees
A cross is born
The one you own
Down on my knees
My cross is born
My faith is weak
But my heart is strong

Found another chance to change
You're not alone
You're gonna find it
The one you own
Only the wheel knows
You're not alone
When your heart is strong
