

Kip Winger, Kiss Of Life

A strong wind is blowing through the heart of me
Change is rushin' in
I look into the sky
All that I can see is how empty I have been
Suddenly I feel the fire that I felt in you
Got to let you in
Your love is lifting me from everything I've known
And everything I've been

All that's left inside
A changing tide
Wonder where I'm going
Now that I can't stop the beginning

Your voice alive
A kiss of life
Burning in me
Your heart in mine
A kiss of life

The spinning earth has secrets I have only seen
In shadow and in sin
Somehow your eyes untie this web of mystery
Where I can live again

But one voice inside still wants to hide
Can't see where he's going
Knows that he can't stop the beginning

Your voice alive
A kiss of life
Burning in me
Your heart in mine
A kiss of life

Deep down inside me know that I'm with you where I'm going
Now that I can't stop the beginning

Your voice alive
A kiss of life
Burning in me
Your heart in mine
A kiss of life
