Kirk Franklin, Afterwhile

Afterwhile, this too shall pass, Afterwhile Scars will heal, you'll love again It won't hurt you, Afterwhile Stuck between if and when You prayed, you tried, but still no end

God's purpose soon you'll understand It won't hurt you, Afterwhile [2x]

[repeat top]

So when the pain has come to end And now your heart is whole again Help someone who needs to know That it won't hurt, Afterwhile
