

Kirsty MacColl, Count On Me

When you do know what you don't know
When you can't tell what you do know
And it gets so very hard to see

And if you weren't expecting trouble
And I burst your little bubble
Well I'm sorry babe, but you can count on me

I know I get a little crazy sometimes
I know you think I'm driving you out of my mind
I know you love me and I don't make it easy but you can count on me

You can count on me
To do the wrong thing at the right time
Say the right thing at the wrong time
I have a hard time with my synchronicity

And I know I should remember
Never never lose my temper
But you know it isn't easy being me

I'm always early or too late
I know I often make you wait
I don't mean to get you in a state
No you can count on me, darling
You can count on me

And if I seem to see the hours go so quick like summer flowers
I have a problem with the bright side
You can see
So if I seem a little stateless sometimes
Rest assured that I'm just unsure of just where I should be
And don't mistake me for faithless no, no
I promise you now you can count on, you can count on me

And so I get a little crazy sometimes
But there's so much of this world that I want to see
And if you want to come with me now
I won't let you down
No, you can count on me
