

Kiso & Kayla Diamond, Sober (feat. Vanillaz)

this has to stop and o don't know why I guess I am spoil
don't have to try
you were there
the whole damn night
too much to drink
guess I was blind

coz I think you're ugly
when I am sober
yes, that's a kind of getting older come and get over my shoulder
for some /3x
better then you

for some
better then you

I know I am shallow
guess that's the truth
with the bed with the ten woke up with the two

why and how did I end up with you
we had a fun
but now it's throw

coz I think you're ugly
when I am sober
yes, that's a kind of getting older
for some /3x
better then you

for some
better then you

please excuse me
I forgot your name
tell me I had fun
but I was faking in and I got to run straight for the hills
leave you with the bill
this is goodbye

I think you're ugly
when I am sober
yes, that's a kind of getting older
for some /3x
better then you

for some
