

Kiss, Heart Of Chrome

You better listen up, since you screwed me you've been on my mind Yeah, 'til the day we met,
I was cruisin', I was doin' fine Ooh, but now my world's gone crazy and I think about you all the time I'm gonna tell it to ya baby, it ain't like it was There'll be no ifs ands or maybes, only justice because

Chorus:

Hey, baby (I got an angry soul, I got a broken home)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome (I got no self-control, you gotta heart of chrome) Yeah, sugar (and now you're gonna see, that since you messed with me)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(You'll pay eternally, for your heart of chrome)

For your heart of chrome
Yeah, you really made a fool outta me Everybody knew you used me, but I was just too blind to see You taped our sexy conversations and you sold 'em to the BBC
You told me people can't be trusted, you gotta watch the things they do
But if you still believe in justice,
I'm gonna give it to ya, give it to ya Ooh!

(Instrumental break)

You told me lies about all that you feel I realize now that nothing was real
You took everything you could beg borrow steal

chorus repeats 2x
