Kiss, Hold Me, Touch Me (Think Of Me When We

Though I know that you are sleepin' Girl, there's somethin' I must say Though the road may wind My love will find the way Many the miles have come between us And the days, they come and go Still with all we feel It never really shows Hold me, touch me, and think of me when we're apart Hold me, baby won't you touch me And think of me here in the night And you know it'll be alright Though the time apart seems endless All my thoughts remain with you I believe one day We'll make our dreams come true Our goodbyes go on forever And with all that we may say Till tomorrow comes We'll dream of yesterday Hold me, baby won't you touch me And think of me when we're apart Hold me, baby won't you touch me And think of me here in the night And you know it'll be alright Mmm, aha, yeah
