

Kiss, Let Me Know

Ah let me, let me
Let me be your Sunday driver
Let me be your Monday man
I'll take you anywhere you want
Just as fast as I can

It doesn't matter what you wanna do
It doesn't matter where you wanna go
Just gotta decide girl and then you let me know

Oh, did you ever want lovin', so you're callin'
Up your baby and she's stallin' with the neighbors
And the night keeps gettin' longer
And the urge keeps getting stronger
So your tryin and your dyin' and you're wonderin' does she love you
A knock comes at your door
Let me in honey

Let me
Let me be your Tuesday taxi
Let me be your Wednesday boy
I'll be your lovin' man
You'll be my bundle of joy
And oh
It doesn't matter what you wanna do
It doesn't matter where you wanna go
You just gotta decide girl and then you let me know
