

Kiss, The Jungle

Here I go
Down below

The sun is goin' down
A jungle comes alive
The beast is waking up
To take another life

I can't sleep
In too deep

The man with nothing left
Without a place to hide
Will take a final breath
And tumble in the night

Yeah
Someone's safe at home
Someone dies alone
Someone's fallen prey
Yeah
Some will take their fill
Like lions to the kill
Livin' day to day
Whooooaaaaaooooohhhh, The Jungle

Mothers mourn
Fathers groan

The child takes a hit
And then he starts to cry
A mother never hears
Her baby's last goodbye

Yeah
Someone's safe at home
Someone dies alone
Someone's fallen prey
Yeah
Some will take their fill
Like lions to the kill
Livin' day to day
Whooooaaaaaooooohhhh, The Jungle

The sun is coming up
A city comes alive
The lamb will never see
A jungle in the sky

Yeah
Someone's safe at home
Someone dies alone
Someone's falling prey
Yeah
Some will take their fill
Like lions to the kill
Livin' day to day
Yeah
Someone dies alone
Someone's safe at home
All is flesh and bone
Whooooaaaaaooooohhhh, The Jungle
