

Kitty Wells, Bridge I Just Can't Burn

My lawyer turned and said congratulations I smiled and told something in return
The moments here at last oh it sure came awfully fast
And I'm standing on a bridge that I can't burn
All I have to do is sign the papers I thought that I would be so unconcerned
Thought my bridges all were crossed but right now I feel so lost
And I'm standing on a bridge I just can't burn
The bridge of sweet sweet loving that we once had between us
Somewhere along the way we missed a turn
Now here is sign to sign but I can't even see the line
And I'm standing on a bridge I just can't burn
Yes I'm standing on a bridge I just can't burn
