

Kitty Wells, Cheatin' Is Catchin'

Cheating is catching and you'll get caught every time
Every time you steal a kiss your conscience tells you it has the end
But you're the cheating kind you'll do it again and again
For the thief always returns to the scene of the crime
Cheating is catching and you'll get caught every time
Your sins will find you out like it's meant to be that way
The price for breaking love vows is mighty great
Some day your love will change and too late you will find
Cheating is catching and you'll get caught every time
[steel]

You break a heart and thrill a soul and for a while you get away
But the law of average soon will catch you for crime you'll pay
And there's no turning back at the end of the line
Cheating is catching and you'll get caught every time
Yes cheating is catching and you'll get caught every time
