

Kitty Wells, Dasher With The Light Upon His Tail

Did you ever wonder how Santa gets his light to see
When the moon is in the shadow or hidden behind a tree
Now we all heard of Rudolph bout his nose lights up the trail
But I bet you never heard of dasher with the light upon his tail
Oh dash away dash away dash away dash away over hill and dale
Stranger laughs so merily as dasher with the light upon his tail
Bidin' on the rooftop down the chimney
Every swear old Santa goes he gives him light to see
Dasher has a job to do before they hit each trail
Following old Santa with the light upon his tail
(Oh dash away dash away dash away dash away) over hill and dale
Stranger laughs so merrily as dasher with the light upon his tail
Bidin' on the rooftop...
