

Kitty Wells, Footsteps Of My Lord

Hear the thunder in the night hear the bawls of lightning strike

That's just the footsteps of my Lord

Hear the tiny infant cry hear the dying say goodbye

That's just the footsteps of my Lord

When I go out walking I never have a fear

I know I'll never walk alone cause my Lord's always near

Hear the breezes in the trees hear the splashing of the seas

[ac.guitar]

When I go out walking...

That's just the footsteps of my Lord
