

Kitty Wells, He Don't Make Me Cry

You love me just enough to hurt me and that always seems to satisfy
Your constant need to always keep me hurtin' I guess you like to see me cry
Now another handsome face is smilin' and to him my every whim is do or die
He may not think what he were to me but at least he don't make me cry
He's not like you in a lot of ways but he makes it easy with you away another day
He don't find it very hard to love me and I don't guess he even has to try
He's not the dream that I've been looking for but thank God he don't make me cry
