

Kitty Wells, Heartbreak Waltz

Pardon me Mister I see you're alone don't think I'm bold I mean you no harm

But I see through the dim lights a tear in your eye could it mean you've lost your love

So let's dance dance our trouble away while the band plays we'll swing and sway

Pretend we're happy though love we have lost while we dance the Heartbreak Waltz

[ steel ]

Here's to the someone who's making you blue was he untrue unfaithful to you

Did she go without warning and leave to pine did your love find another sweetheart

So let's dance dance...

[ piano ]

So let's dance dance...
