

Kitty Wells, If I Had The Right To Do You Wrong

If I had the right to do you wrong I'd do you right and never do wrong

If I had the heart to leave you and part I'd give up my heart and stay

How could a girl in her right mind treat such a true love as you are unkind

No I couldn't hurt you I believe I would die

If I broke your heart dear and made you cry and made you cry

If I had the right to do you wrong...
