

Kitty Wells, Just Call Me Lonesome

Why must I love the heartless one who'll never know the harm she's done

Though love is blind I should have known just call me lonesome from now on

I climb the stairs up to my room but no one meets me in my gloom

The silence tells me she is gone just call me lonesome from now on

These walls will hide me when I cry and hope that heaven lets me die

What good is life when hope is gone just call me lonesome from now on

I pray my memories at last will fade into the distant past

If I must live and love alone just call me lonesome from now on
