

Kitty Wells, My Heart Echoes

(My heart echoes it back to me)

There's an emptiness tonight there's a longing in my heart

For your tender loving smile and sweet caress

Oh if you could only see what you're leaving did to me

You would come back dear and fill this loneliness

My heart echoes now that you're gone dear my heart echoes with misery

Though you told me that we were through dear my heart echoes it back to me

[piano]

Though you said that we were through I'll be waiting here for you

As I have dear ever since we've been apart

I know dear that I was wrong without you I can't go on

For you're always in the echo of my heart

My heart echoes now...
