

Kitty Wells, Walk Softly On The Bridges

Don't be careless with you darling if you love him don't let him down

If you're faithful he won't leave you lost and wasted the way I am

Walk softly on the bridges that you're crossing

Don't break his heart then cry cause it won't mend

Be careful not to slam the door behind you

You may want to knock upon his door again

[guitar - steel]

When temptation flirts and whispers come and taste my lips they're sweet as wine

If you weaken then you'll be chatin' on your own heart like I did mine

Walk softly on the bridges...

You may want to knock upon his door again
