

Kitty Wells, What Locks The Door

You can't relive your past with the dream that's gone

You can't find love that will last in your world alone

A hurt so tall has built the wall where fate begins

What locks the door to the world you're living in

What locks the door to the world you're living in what kind of key do I need to get in

I tried anything from solid gold to cent

What locks the door to the world you're living in

[steel]

Somehow someday I'll find the way to warm your heart

And take anyway this thing that's keeping us apart

I need you now but even more I need you then

What locks the door to the world you're living in

What locks the door...
