

Kitty Wells, You Want Her Not Me

Your touch tells me all I need to know I lost you it hurts to see you go

Yes I'm unhappy but at least my heart's free I'm no fool you want her not me

You want her not me the truth I know though you're not man enough to tell me so

Our love's nothing more than a memory since I found out you want her not me

[steel]

I knew something was wrong your kisses grew cold

When you found new love my love was old

Oh you stare in the space your eyes don't see

The whole town knows you want her not me

You want her not me...
