

Kj-52, Turn It Up

Turn it up, pump it up, get em up, here we go yall Turn it up, pump it up, get it up, lets roll yall

Oh snap i'm right on track, some said that i might not last some said what i write was wack, all right well guess who's back Bounce rock i move the spot, we gone see if you can move or not I know what your thinking pops, KJ-52 doing rock?
Man he just needs to stop, you know that junk don't flop what's he think he gone drop, don't he know that aint hip hop First yall call me Slim Shady, now yall just think I'm crazy but as long as these stations play me

chorus

See to me now what this is, it's like run DMC in 86
Saw em on tv w/ Aerosmith, and I flipped my wig, I was just a kid I was like dang that junk was hot combining hip hop with a chunk of rock I watched how it it just bumped the spot and kids just flipped when that junk was dropped but some peeps think they words I can't pretend like the junk don't hurt
But I'm a still bless even if ya curse Now I aint trying to be Fred Durst but the one thing now it's best to learn cause for me its the first thing that's first it's just Jesus in every verse

Alright I'm a say it here's the fact most of these Rocker dudes they can't Rap but then again most Rappers can't Rock but I can't be confined to hip hop Now from P.O.D. to Thousand Foot Krutch Earthsuit and Pillaryo they get mad love
If ya see me rockin' no need to bug Just say what up give a pound and a hug
You know what's kind of strange to me
Some rappers treat me like I'm a disease But these rock dudes they always cool to me and seem more real and just true to me But rap stars that wanna act hard I already done straight pulled ya card weither or not the tracks got guitars it's just Jesus every time I spit bars now
