

Kjartan Salvesen, Standing Tall (Live)

It's been a month and a day now
And still there's no sign of you
Thinking of all I've done and can't undo

But I'm not walking in circles
'cause I've found something new I'm here to tell you that I have made it through

And I'm standing tall
I've been through it all
I said to myself: "I'll never fall"
'cause I've been through hell
got up when I fell
I promised myself I'd live to tell
And I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall

I don't believe in miracles
I don't believe in fate
I don't believe that love can turn to hate (oh no)

And if you're hearing my voice now
Over your radio
There is just one thing I want you to know

And I'm standing tall
I've been through it all
I said to myself: "I'll never fall"
'cause I've been through hell
got up when I fell
I promised myself I'd live to tell
And I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall

And it really blows my mind
I just never saw the sign
And now I leave it all behind

And I'm standing tall
I've been through it all
I said to myself: "I'll never fall"
'cause I've been through hell
got up when I fell
I promised myself I'd live to tell
And I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall
I'm standing tall

And I'm standing tall
