

KMFDM, Secret Sin (Sex & Salvation)

This is the greasy rope, the broken wreck
I see the twisted hope strung around your neck
This hopeless dream, this sordid stream, I wish for once again
Pray for me

Your secret skin will shelter me your secret skin can not hide your sin
your secret skin will smell on me your secret skin will not hide your name

Secret skin
your secret skin

Sin sex salviton

Once more I pay the bloody fist, once more betrayed by your broken wrist one more busted nail, the sordid crime, one more stain spreading among on your shrine

Your secret skin will shelter me
your secret skin can not hide your sin
your secret skin will smell on me
your secret skin will can not a hide your name

your secret skin

Once more I pay this bloody fist, betray your broken bloody wrist
One wish to name my sordid crime, the spreading stain among your shrine

your secret skin

your secret skin can not hide your sin
your secret skin will smell on me
your secret skin will can not a hide your name
