

KMFDM, Secret Skin

This is the greasy rope

The broken wreck

I see the twisted hope strung around your neck

This hopeless dream

This sordid stream

I whisper once again praying for the end

Your secret skin can't hide your shame

Your secret skin will shelter me

Your secret skin will smell of me

Your secret skin can't hide your name

Sin Sex & Salvation

Once more obey the bloody fist

Once more betrayed by your open wrist

One more rusty nail a sordid crime

One more spreading stain upon your shrine

Once more obey this bloody fist

Betray your open bloody wrist

One rusty nail one sordid crime

The spreading stain upon your shrine
