

KMFDM, Today

Isolation

When you leave it's like I disappear

Desolation

Everytime you go it feels like

Seconds slowly turn to minutes

A month of Sundays coming up

Time again it pulls me under

Wonder if I'll ever rise above

It's too much but not enough

Misery loves company

For a little bit of sympathy

It's here today

but it's gone tomorrow

It's here today

and today will never come again

Desperation

Sinking into somewhere dark and cold

Deviation

A place I knew I did not want to go

To forget is all I know

Minutes slowly turn to hours

Another moment passes by

Seconds of eternity

I wonder if it's time to say goodbye...
