KMFDM, Today

Isolation
When you leave it's like I disappear
Desolation
Everytime you go it feels like
Seconds slowly turn to minutes
A month of Sundays coming up
Time again it pulls me under
Wonder if I'll ever rise above
It's too much but not enough

Misery loves company For a little bit of sympathy

It's here today but it's gone tomorrow It's hear today and today will never come again

Desperation
Sinking into somewhere dark and cold
Deviation
A place I knew I did not want to go
To forget is all I know

Minutes slowly turn to hours Another moment passes by Seconds of eternity I wonder if it' time to say goodbye...
