Knapsack, Change Is All The Rage

I fathomed love the rest tonight Change is all the rage There are catapults There are bare insults

I can see forever all these things They are obvious to me

We are flawless proof
We are breaking loose
I am ready to expire in all directions
All this breaking news
Just keeps breaking you
We will keep it there for your protection

These happenings keep happening And now movements aer making moves There are fingerprints, subtle hints There are things you cannot choose

I can see forever all these things They are obvious to me

We are flawless proof
We are breaking loose
I am ready to expire in all directions
All this breaking news
Just keeps breaking you
We will keep it there for your protection

Honestly I never thought Could ever be this great of cost Openly I accept the separation cuts ~

We are flawless proof
We are breaking loose
I am ready to expire in all directions
All this breaking news
Just keeps breaking you
We will keep it there for your protection
