

Knights Of The Abyss, Megabrain

The fire, it rises from the depths of hell
Fear is shown in all eyes
Our lives considered lost

Those who draw swords
Prepare to die
In darkness it awaits you
It won't die until you die
A bloodbath to remember
Come night you won't exist

Here comes the unwanted creature
This beast stands driven by fear
The taste of flesh satisfies its never ending want

The screams grow louder
I hear the children crying
What do I do
Do I sit and watch this well
I highly fucking doubt it
I feel the need to kill

And with these hands
Your days are numbered
And with these hands you'll be dismembered
I will not fall away

The moon lies darkend
No light for them to see
Our blood boils with hatred
