

Knockout, Regretta

Everyday you'll sink deeper in that hole that you've dug and for yourself
you sit and think about what could've been done to save us.

I don't know what you wanted from me,
wasn't it something I could never be?
Your lies keep changing
and so do you
you're missing all the things we used to do.

I'm finding out all of those things you kept from me for so long.
What makes you think you're always right and I'm so wrong for you? for you?

I don't know what you wanted from me,
wasn't it something I could never be?
Your lies keep changing
and so do you
you're missing all the things we used to do.

I don't know what you wanted from me,
wasn't it something I could never be?
Your lies keep changing
and so do you
you're missing all the things we used to do.
