

Knowledge, Cynic

Throw me back in tears that you have only shared
I thought this was all your fault but we just stay here in despair
Pledged, once more, forever, then you went and f*cked around
I gave you everything I have and then you let me down
Said you'd love me for all time but that wasn't long ago
Forever's still the time we need, the end's not good enough

Forgiveness is a curse (Oi, Oi, Oi)
Forgiveness is a curse (Oi, Oi, Oi)
Forgiveness is a curse...Cynics don't get hurt

I promised you my heart, you will laugh until I die
My love goes beyond all words coz they both fall from the sky
I had to turn my back on you, but you stabbed me in it first
And I'll never take you back, coz forgiveness is a curse
Somethings never fix...and a broken word is one
So I'll add you to the list of trade in, no break, whores!
