

Koffin Kats, Demon Demon

Walls are shaking and they're closing in Now they'll leave this place in ruins
Holy wars fought on these grounds
And the end is coming soon

Sending out the minions
Now destroy the mortal world
God left us so long ago
Armageddons near

Demons demons wiping out mankind
Burn the bodies of religious minds
Taking back the world for their own
Demons walk upon the earth

Alien gods from another realm landed on this place
Claiming it to be their own they planned the human race
The natives all rebelled against but ultimately lost
Evolving evil underground
Soon they'd rise above
